Ashbrooke House and AA Shooting provide a unique opportunity in Ireland to experience simulated game clay pigeon shooting in the heart of Fermanagh in one of Ireland's most beautiful and exclusive Estates, home to Viscount and Viscountess Brookeborough.

We strive to ensure that our guests experience an exceptional, fun and thrilling day shooting.

BESPOKE WEEKEND PACKAGE

A LUXURIOUS ALL-INCLUSIVE WEEKEND PACKAGE
OF SIMULATED CLAY PIGEON SHOOTING

This luxurious and unique weekend is fully catered, with guests enjoying three delicious, locally sourced, home cooked meals per day. Lunch is 2 courses and dinner on Saturday night is 3 courses. Also included in the package are 5 magnums of Prosecco, 1 case of white, red and rose wine and 8 bottles of artisan gin. We are happy to swap cases of wine for beer, if preferred.

This shoot mirrors a traditional driven shoot of partridges, pheasants, snipe and woodcock using clay targets as substitutes. As in nature, the flight of these targets will vary in speed, height and direction with increasing difficulty as the day progresses, culminating in a grand finale, where a combination of all target types is released in a single flurry. There will be approximately 7000 clays used in a typical shoot day.

The shoot lasts a day and a half, with arrival normally on Friday and ending after breakfast on Sunday. A variety of target shapes, difficulty levels and locations are incorporated to make it a fun and exhilarating day and a half of shooting.

We are happy to discuss your group's needs and requirements; do not hesitate to consult with us.

BACKGROUND

Alan and Ashley, the founders of AA Shooting have many more years' experience than they care to declare in setting up and running clay pigeon shoots. Both having been involved with all aspects of shooting since their teens and have progressed to coaching roles and involvement with governing bodies across the UK and Ireland.

The idea for AA Shooting came in 2018 after Alan and Ashley were approached to organise and run a number of shooting events at locations away from their retrospective clubs. The Game Fair at Scarvagh in May 2019 was the first major 2 day event and it became clear there was a demand for shoots of that scale.

After several successful Simulated Game events at a disused quarry in County Fermanagh throughout 2019 and 2020 AA Shooting formed an alliance with Chris and Amanda Brooke, the owners of Ashbrooke House, near Brookeborough, to provide a unique shooting package for groups of up to 20 people.

THE ETHOS

Alan and Ashley are passionate about what they do and Safety is always at the forefront of all the shooting experiences on offer. Whilst safety is our priority we are focused on ensuring that our guests have a fun and memorable day. We strive to deliver an exceptional experience for our guests.

A Safety Briefing is compulsory for all participants on the day of the shoot – there are no exceptions.
